HAL SLOANE WAS 'ECLECTIC-ELECTRIC' AT UCR EVENT

Renowned photojournalist, publisher and social activist Hal Sloane presented images and anecdotes from his new coffee table book, "Mostly Off-Guard," during a University of California, Riverside appearance at the campus in Palm Desert. The audience was riveted by Sloane's eclectic and personal chronicle of people, places and events that shaped the last half of the 20th Century. His book follows travels from refugee camps in Sudan to civil rights marches to celebrity interludes at the Oscars. The October event was a presentation by the UCR Palm Desert Graduate Center.
